Mr. Minges, Mr. Butler, Ms. Edwards, Ms. Shearin and Mr. Golden,

This acknowledges receipt of the email below from Mr. Minges received today, February 16, 2011, with two attachments.

On behalf of Jacobs-Rabons Communications, LLC, Defendant/Respondent in Dockets 2011-55-C and 2011-63-C (combined for purposes of conference call with Mr. Minges on February 14, 2011), we object to the admission of the two documents attached to Mr. Golden's email on the basis that:

(1) the Notice of Lien captioned with Shamika J. Brown as Defendant and the second attachment, a letter that is a Notice of Consumer's Right to Cure dated July 16, 2010, to Shamika J. Brown, are totally immaterial to the issue complained of in the two above-referenced dockets; and

(2) Complainant Golden cannot represent any one else in these dockets; he can only represent himself. The person who is the subject of these two attachments is not a party to this case. These documents should not become a part of these two dockets.

Thank you for noting our objection for the record.

Sincerely,

Adelaide D. Kline
Attorney for Jacobs-Rabons Communications, LLC

Subject: FW: Hello Mr. Minges, This is more critical information

Folks:

I received this email from Mr. Golden yesterday, containing information that he would like the Commission to consider. I have forwarded the information to our Clerk's Office for posting to his Docket (Docket No. 2011-63-C).

In the future, please copy all parties with any additional information you would like added to support your case.

Regards,

Josh Mingos
